WORLD'S FOREMOST OUTFITTER

Boy Scout Challenge – Friday, Oct. 26, 2012 – 9 am to 12:30 pm

What: Scout Challenge – free team event with at least 6 scored tasks.

When: Friday, Oct. 26 (Nevada Day Holiday), 9am to 12:30pm (check-in starts at 8:30am).

Where: At Cabela's in Reno, I-80 Exit 4 (meet at flag poles outside front).

Each scout and leader will receive a $20 off coupon to Cabela's, scout participation patch and lunch.

Pre-Register by October 23rd by calling Jamie Klund at Cabela's, (775) 829-4128 or via email, james.klund@cabelas.com.

Come out and have fun while displaying your scout activity knowledge with this fun and challenging series of team events. Teams will consist of four to five members (troops can have multiple teams) and compete in timed and scored events such as Fire Starting, Archery, Bait Casting, Map Reading, Use of a Compass, Knot Tying, Metal Detecting, Archery Relay plus Tent Raising as you make your way through the various stations in Cabela's adjacent open land around our store.

Check-in opens at 8:30a.m. and the challenge will start shortly after 9 a.m., right after the opening flag ceremony. Cabela's outfitters and area scout leaders will serve as event organizers and judges of the challenge events. Team prizes will be given to the top three teams for use by their troop including a tent for first place, a table top camp stove for second and a lantern for third. An awards' ceremony will be held during lunch, with everything completed by about 12:30pm.

Please contact Jamie Klund at Cabela's to pre-register via email at james.klund@cabelas.com or call him at (775) 829-4128 with any questions. We are providing lunch so we need a head count by Monday of the week of the event.
